

ALL HANDS ON DECK

Jude 20-23

PJ Berner • Compass Bible Church • February 9 & 10, 2019 • Msg. # G19-01

1. Vigilantly _____ (vv.20-21a)

Jude 20 But you, beloved, building yourselves up in your most holy faith and praying in the Holy Spirit, 21 keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. 22 And have mercy on those who doubt; 23 save others by snatching them out of the fire; to others show mercy with fear, hating even the garment stained by the flesh. (ESV)*

2. Maintain _____ (v.21b)

3. Lovingly _____ (vv.22-23)

Application Questions

These questions are provided for your further study and application of today's sermon. Thoughtfully writing out the answers to these questions will help to drive home the point of today's study. It is also helpful when you are able to discuss your answers with others. For more information about small groups at Compass Bible Church that utilize these questions as the basis for their weekly discussion, please call the church office at (949) 540-0699 or email us at SmallGroups@CompassChurch.org.

1. Read Romans 8:37-39 and John 15:1-11. What do we learn about God's love regarding his commitment to us and our responsibility to him? How then should we understand Jude's command that we keep ourselves in the love of God?
2. Read Revelation 2:18-25. What are some of the parallels we see between this church and those to whom Jude was writing? The only command given to the genuine believers in this church is in verse 25. How does this parallel Jude's instructions in Jude 20-21?
3. Read 2 Timothy 2:24-26. How does this passage instruct us to engage with those who oppose the gospel (false teachers and their disciples)? What should be our motivation in our conversations with them?
4. In Jude 23 we are instructed to hate the garment stained by the flesh. What does this mean for our evangelism efforts? What are some principles of discernment that we should employ to safeguard ourselves from the stained garments of those we wish to see saved?
